

Many a Heart is Breaking

For the Dear One that's Gone

Words by
K. M. ROBERTS

Music by
VINCENT DATTILO

The words in this Ballad were the actual thoughts of the days in the front line trenches. A touching ballad written in honor of those who made the supreme sacrifice in the great war. Send 25c. for this ballad.

Keep their memory living.

Copyrighted 1919 by The Ansonia Music Co.

Words by
K. M. ROBERTS

Many a Heart is Breaking For the Dear One That's Gone

Music by
VINCENT DATTILO

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It features a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a 2/4 time signature. The score is divided into five systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The piano accompaniment consists of chords and single notes in both the right and left hands.

The shot and shell were loud - ly screaming,
The end of day had come at last,

Our star ry flag on high was gleaming, A group of boys
And the roll - call was then be gun, To ev - ery name had gath - ered round, Speak - ing of days home - ward bound.

an an - swer came, To ev ery name, ex - cept one;

When they'd re turn loved ones to cheer With tales of glory, end - ing their
The first line rank had been bro ken, By a dear Boy who lived and fear Then comes a voice not far a way, In sweet tones, heard someone say — died For the Hon or of his Coun-try For the Glo ry and the Pride —

CHORUS

Ma - ny homes are va cant By the ab sence of a son,

Pray - ing for their return ing, Af - ter the war is won Ma ny

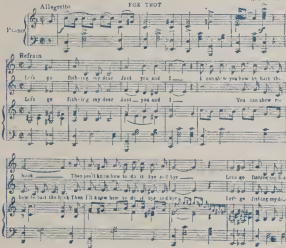

homes are | va cant By the loss of a son, —

Ma - ny a heart is break ing For the dear one that's gone —

PLAYED IN EVERY STATE AND ENDORSED BY THE LEADERS OF THE THEATRICAL WORLD.

25 cents

Let's Go Fishing
My Dear

25 cents

In My Dream Of You

THE ANSONIA MUSIC COMPANY

Ansonia, Conn., U. S. A.